

Additional Supports for Young Moms

- Durham Region Health Department: Healthy Babies Healthy Children, Breastfeeding Support Groups & SMILE Prenatal Program
1-800-841-2729
- Oshawa Community Health Centre:
(905)723-0036
- The Youth Centre (905)428-1212
- Pregnancy Support Team—Durham Alternative Secondary School
(905)839-2913
- MotherRisk: Pregnancy Helpline
(416)813-6780
- FCAP: Family and Community Action Program 1-800-214-7163
- Pinewood Centre: Addiction Support
(905)683-5950
- Social Services: 1-866-840-6697
- Rose of Durham: (905)432-3622
- The Salvation Army (905)427-7123
- Denise House 1-800-263-3725
- YWCA Housing (905)-728-5227
- Durham Region Mental Health Mobile Crisis Unit 1-800-742-1890

Food '4' Thought Glen St. Site

Glen Street Food 4 Thought LOCATION

Glen St. Public School
929 Glen Street

Mondays 1-3 pm

Food '4' Thought Glen St. Site

*A Drop-in Program For Pregnant
Young Women Up to 26 Years of Age*

Funded by Public Health Agency of Canada
Administered by Girls Incorporated of Durham

girls inc.

Glen St. Public School
929 Glen Street
Oshawa
Mondays 1-3 pm

What's it all about?

- Meet other young moms
- Talk with understanding professionals
- Take home healthy food and prenatal vitamins
- Join in interesting discussions and workshops
- Learn about programs and services for you and your baby
- Transportation assistance may be available
- Get breastfeeding information and support
- Enjoy a healthy snack

CPNP Drop-in Sites, which are known as Food '4' Thought Drop-ins, are operated in 8 sites throughout Durham Region.

The goal of the Pre & Post Natal Nutrition Project is to improve the health of pregnant women & babies.

Build a Better Baby at Food '4' Thought

Day: Monday

Time: 1:00am to 3:00pm

Location:

Glen St. Public School
929 Glen Street

For more information and site locations please call:

Girls Incorporated of Durham
(905) 428 - 8111 or toll free
at 1 - 877 - GIRLS - XL or

Durham Health Connection
Line 1 - 800 - 841 - 2729

